I’m not celebrating it, I’m describing why America can dominate Europe as it does despite (ie: because of) its population being lumpenized in this manner. I would prefer an American Civilization, but that’s only an Idea at present.

All that is being celebrated in the last 2 threads is the "lumpen-bourgeois" character of America that he usually castigates in comparisons with China. The "criminal-pirate-hegemon" that recognises exclusively the rule of force Europe is no better, the elite of Europe are the most “Americanized” & enjoy their satanic liberties with the backing of American power— they love American backed tax shelters & American drugs &c.

The distinction is rather that Europeans can dissociate from this reality by considering America “lesser” than Europe because it has more welfare statism. “You poor Americans” they say— but their welfare state is propped up by the lumpen aristocracy of America.

Do European elites love Cocaine or “European Civilization” more?

China is more respectable than Europe & China isn’t a welfare state.

If anything, China is most like America in the late 19th century, dominated by Industrial Republicanism, & the workhouse of global trade. America used to be the premier industrial powerhouse of the world. The europeans are currently being deindustrialized to enrich American centered finance capital.

So no, as an American I do not fall for the hype of European social democracy moderate fascism & welfare. I know it’s a sham. I respect the sovereignty of China, like Russia, in being real places that people live & work & die for, & not the theme park of pensioners & vacationers

America may be the Great Satan, but better the Great Satan than the Little Satan of Europe.

“Oh we Europeans we are civilized we have no Donald Trump we are christian social democrats with welfare we find you Americans stupid with your silly guns blah blah blah” — this is coincidentally the ideology of elite Americans— they love their vacation homes in Europe— Zuckerberg thinks he’s a Roman Emperor

There is greater dignity in the struggle of Americans within the great satan of american empire than of pampered european welfare staters whose pensions are paid out by NVIDIA stock going up. European pensions are paid by international finance buying american real estate etc.

American finance sharks use European pension funds as a piggy bank for exploiting americans

In in Hualien County a private 6ha butterfly reserve is being used to also grow indigo plants, which were a major cash crop until about a century ago. Underneath the trees indigo plants provide food and shelter for the butterflies: excess indigo leaves are harvested and sold.

"All classes of society not composed of actual and immediate producers of wealth (and these, in England at least, are almost exclusively wages-laborers), all classes, from kings and queens to music-masters and greengrocers, live upon their respective shares of this surplus-value. In other words, they live upon the net produce of the surplus labor which the capitalist extracts from his workpeople, but for which he does not pay. It matters not whether the share of surplus-labor falling to each member of society not actually a producer is granted as a gift by Act of Parliament from the public revenue, or whether it has to be earned by performing some function not actually productive. There is no other fund out of which they can be paid, but the sum total of the surplus value created by the immediate producers, for which they are not paid." -Eleanor Marx

Now, what does Eleanor Marx mean by "immediate producers" rather than merely saying "all those who sell their labor power as a commodity" -- perhaps it has something to do with the distinction between "immediate producers" & "all classes" which include

Monomoniactal Reductionism: "Everything is merely one thing" Dualistic Schizophrenia: "Everything is two opposing things" Trinitarian Regeneration: "Everything is two things perpetually begetting a third thing" Quaternian Eden: "Everything is eternally suspended in a paradoxical balance of infinite contradiction"

"Stuff" "Good Stuff / Bad Stuff" "Good Stuff / Bad Stuff / & Stuff" "Good (Good) Stuff [Good] / Bad (Good) Stuff [Corrupt] / Good (Bad) Stuff [Redeemable] / Bad (Bad) Stuff [Evil]"

The Trinitarian view still posits that there is just neutral "stuff" that is in the process of becoming good or bad-- this is the "normie" christian cosmology, in which there's Heaven, Hell, & "the in between" -- but in the more enlightened esoteric christian hermeneutic, there is more of a recognition of particular states, such as corruption & redemption, the mirror reflections (fearful symmetries) of "the annarent good that is evil" & "the annarent evil that is good"

It's really funny how in the West, the "communists" immediately jump into visions of cosmic empires, the unification of a globe into a single world government is taken for granted, since the British Empire in the 19th century seemed to them to be the inevitable hegemon over the Globe-- but this tradition of thought is considered more or less "grounded in reality" as opposed to the humble 5 Year Plans of Eastern Communists, who in many ways refuse to describe what "the end state of Communism" even is, because their focus is solely upon their immediate conditions, & the horizons of the class war in that immediate moment.

In the early 20th century, the United Nations was built by Anglo Global Hegemony, & even the Eastern Communists agreed to partake in this dispensation-- but they ultimately turned the UN against Anglo Global Hegemony by this point in the 21st century, which is why there's a growing movement toward openly exiting the United Nations within the Anglosphere-- if the US didn't have super veto privileges in the Security Council & a tacit agreement that it does not have to adhere to any motions passed by the UN, it wouldn't be

It's good that the Chinese got their hands on Marx, so that they can do the ideas justice, because they have never been a "moralistic" or "moralizing" society-- rather, they've always been metaphysical pragmatists, having created the preconditions for western science in Taoist Alchemy millennia ago.

Most of the "right wing" critiques of "Marxism" are correct simply because "Western Marxists" are petite bourgeois clerks & priests who derive their livelihood from rent-extraction by upholding a pretense to "moral concern" -- the Chinese Communist is not a moralist.

Moralism "feels right" -- but is actually unintuitive & incorrect. A moralist becomes a vegan, which is an asinine sort of behavior. Jesus Christ was not a moralist, which is why he was killed by the moralizing Pharisees. Jesus forgave sin. This is intolerable to

"It is so customary for the Members of the Corps Diplomatick, to make Ex officio representations of Such Ebullitions in Newspapers to the Administration of the Government to which they are Accredited; that it must be acknowledged to be much to the honour of the Gentlemen who are here from Spain Holland and England, that they have not hitherto persecuted the President & secretary of State with Remonstrances against our Newspapers. Their Silence is a Proof of their Moderation, their Patience and their Tenderness for the Freedom of the Press. I Suppose too that they make allowances for our Youth and Inexperience of the World. For Our Ignorance of what in Europe is known and acknowledged to be the Delicacy and Decency, due to all foreign nations and their Governments. We claim a Right, very justly to the form of Government We like best. Every Nation in Europe has the Same Right and if they judge Monarchy to be necessary for their Happiness, What Right have We to reproach, much less to insult them? Supposing ourselves to be Judges of what kind of Government is best for them, a Supposition however which We cannot modestly make and which is certainly ill founded, We should have no right to impose upon them our Ideas of Government, any more than our principles of Religion or

When did people begin to realize that their phones actually were listening to them & serving advertisements based on that knowledge? You used to be called a schizo for saying “My phone is listening to me & sending me advertisements based upon my private conversations”

The actual conditions of life are schizophrenic now— it’s the consequence of the means of production being centralized in private (occult) control. There are literally boardrooms where execs of multinational conglomerates try to plan your consumer demand through psychological war

There’s an ad campaign ongoing from Kelloggs (W. K. Kellogg Foundation(17.6%) Gordon Gund (6.1%) KeyCorp (6.1%) etc) running on youtube media designated for children which has children demanding cereal for dinner, to produce a new demand for cereal.
