This comes as absolutely no surprise.

The corrupt DOJ has done this before. Of course, they would do it again.

Only two weeks ago Kash Patel was on Bannon's War Room where he said:

A special counsel on paper is the right move and it would have been back in November but the problem is we've seen the corrupt government gangsters go out and cover up the corrupt activities. Namely the likes of Rod Rosenstein, Chris Wray and Merrick Garland.

...Remember Rod Rosenstein appointed Mueller, Comey's best friend to be Special Counsel. And now you have a situation where Merrick Garland appoints Hur, Special Counsel – H-U-R.

You know who Hur is? Rod Rosenstein's number one lawyer when Rod Rosenstein was the Attorney General in charge of the Russiagate investigation where Devin Nunes and I sent him a dozen subpoenas and Rosenstein and Hur blocked eight of the response of those subpoenas because they wanted to cover up the corruption at the DOJ and FBI.

They were in on it then and they're in on it now. That's why I disagree of the appointment of this guy as Special Counsel.

And here's the most important thing I say tonight. This guy Hur needs to be the first one subpoenaed by the Special Committee under Jim Jordan's authority on the weaponization of government.

And do you want to know why? It's because Hur, we have the receipts Steve and we're going to release them later, was sending communications to the Justice Department to Rod Rosenstein's crew arguing against the release of the Nunes memo, saying that it would bastardize and destroy the United States Security apparatus.

This guy is a swamp monster of the tier one level, he's a government gangster...

Kash was right. Yesterday Conservative Treehouse reported that the swamp responded to Rep. Jim Jordan and refused to comply with his subpoenas related to the classified documents found in Joe Biden's possession.

Today, in a responsive letter to inquiry from House Judiciary Chairman Jim Jordan, exactly as anticipated, the DOJ triggered the latter justification as a reason not to comply with legislative oversight.

WASHINGTON DC – [...] Carlos Felipe Uriarte, the assistant attorney general for DOJ's office of legislative affairs, sent a Monday letter to House Judiciary Committee chairman Rep. Jim Jordan (R-OH), pointing to Garland's Jan. 12 selection of special counsel Robert Hur to investigate Biden's apparent mishandling of classified information as the key reason why the DOJ was limiting its sharing of information on the Biden saga.

[...] "Your letter ... requests non-public information that is central to the ongoing Special Counsel investigation," the assistant attorney general told

Jordan on Monday. "The Department's longstanding policy is to maintain the confidentiality of such information regarding open matters. This policy protects the American people's interest in the evenhanded, dispassionate, and effective administration of justice. Disclosing non-public information about ongoing investigations could violate statutory requirements or court orders, reveal road maps of our investigations, and interfere with the Department's ability to gather facts, interview witnesses, and bring criminal prosecutions where warranted." (more)

This is why the corrupt Biden swamp created the Biden investigation. It wasn't so they could investigate. They won't do that. It's so they can prevent outsiders from investigating swamp Biden crimes.
