NASA has confirmed the Hollywood rumor that Tom Cruise is planning to film a movie in outer space and added the news that the filming will take place aboard the International Space Station.

Since it's 2020 and this is how our government communicates with us now, NASA Administrator Jim Bridenstine confirmed the news in a tweet.

NASA is excited to work with @TomCruise on a film aboard the @Space_Station! We need popular media to inspire a new generation of engineers and scientists to make @NASA's ambitious plans a reality.
