

Obama Terror Hype

August 7th, 2013 • 11:09 AM

A senior U.S. intelligence official has described the Obama Administration's reaction to credible intelligence about a pending terrorist attack by Al Qaeda as a "political ploy" aimed at pushing back against the NSA and other scandals. The source harshly criticized the decision to shut down 19 American embassies for a week as an extreme over-reaction. "In effect, U.S. foreign policy is being shut down for much of the Middle East and North Africa." The source added that the Obama White House is obsessed with the idea of his becoming a lame duck. "This is the elephant in the room," the official noted, citing the escalating scandals around the NSA spying, the IRS political target list and the new revelations about the Obama White House cover-up of the Benghazi attack. If a U.S. embassy were to be bombed anywhere in the world, that would finish off the Obama presidency, the official concluded. And no one is more sensitive to this political danger than Susan Rice.
