

UN Declares War on 'Dangerous' Conspiracy Theories: 'The World Is NOT Secretly Manipulated By Global Elite'

The United Nations has declared war on conspiracy theories, describing the rise of conspiracy thinking as "worrying and dangerous", and providing the public with a toolkit to "prebunk" and "debunk" anybody who dares to suggest that world governments are anything but completely honest, upstanding and transparent.

The UN wants you to know that events are NOT "secretly manipulated behind the scenes by powerful forces with negative intent" and if you encounter anybody who thinks the global elite are conspiring to consolidate power and dictate global events, you must take action.

According to UNESCO, "if you are certain you have encountered a conspiracy theory" on the internet then you must "react" immediately post a relevant link to a "fact-checking website" in the comments.

(Never mind the fact that "fact checkers" are mostly untrained and unqualified hacks performing "fact checks" from the comfort of their bedroom in between posting far-left political content on personal blogs and getting high.)

CONSPIRACY THEORIES

What are they? Why do they flourish?

BE WARNED: THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC HAS SEEN A RISE IN HARMFUL AND MISLEADING CONSPIRACY THEORIES. IT MAY BE DIFFICULT TO RECOGNIZE THEM OR KNOW HOW BEST TO DEAL WITH THEM.

- 1. What are they?
  - The belief that events are secretly manipulated behind the scenes by powerful forces with negative intent.
- 2. Conspiracy theories have these 6 things in common
  - 1 An alleged, secret plot
  - 2 A group of conspirators
  - 3 'Evidence' that seems to support the conspiracy theory
  - 4 They falsely suggest that nothing happens by accident and that there are no coincidences; nothing is as it appears and everything is connected.
  - 5 They divide the world into good or bad.
  - 6 They scapegoat people and groups.
- 3. Why do they flourish?
  - They offer an explanation of events or situations which are difficult to understand and bring a false sense of control and agency. This need is heightened in times of uncertainty like the COVID-19 pandemic.
- 4. How do they take root?
  - Conspiracy theories often start as a suspicion. They ask who is benefiting from the event or situation and thus identify the conspirators. Any 'evidence' is then forced to fit the theory.

Once they have taken root, conspiracy theories can grow quickly. They are hard to refute because any person who tries is seen as being part of the conspiracy.

5. Why do people spread them?

→ There are different reasons: Most believe they are true. Others deliberately want to provoke, manipulate or target people for political or financial reasons. Beware: They can come from many sources e.g. internet, friends, relatives.

UNESCO also provide advice for anyone who encounters a real live conspiracy theorist in the flesh. According to the UN agency, you must not under any circumstances be lured into an argument with the conspiracy theorist. "Any argument may be taken as proof that you are part of the conspiracy and reinforce that belief" and the conspiracy theorist will probably "argue hard to defend their beliefs."

Instead you must show "empathy", avoid "ridiculing them", and if you are a journalist you must "report" them to social media and "contact your local/national press council or press ombudsman."

CONSPIRACY THEORIES

Concrete counter actions

STOP

BE WARNED: THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC HAS SEEN A RISE IN HARMFUL AND MISLEADING CONSPIRACY THEORIES. IT MAY BE DIFFICULT TO RECOGNIZE THEM OR KNOW HOW BEST TO DEAL WITH THEM.

IF YOU ARE CERTAIN YOU HAVE IDENTIFIED A CONSPIRACY THEORY, REACT RATHER THAN IGNORE. HERE ARE SOME CONCRETE WAYS:

On social media:

- Comment with verified information (e.g. from fact-checking website)
- Do not share the post

On websites and blogs:

- Contact the author or the web manager with verified information and ask them to make corrections
- Do not share the website or blog post

On media outlets:

- Contact the editorial board
- Contact your local/national press council or press ombudsperson
- Do not share the material

Remarkably, hidden in the fine print, UNESCO admit that conspiracy theories do exist. Under the heading "What is a real conspiracy?" the United Nations bureaucrats explain that "real conspiracies large and small DO exist."

According to the UN, it's only a REAL conspiracy theory if it's "unearthed by the media."

"They are more often centered on single self-contained events, or an individual like an assassination or a coup d'état. They are unearthed by whistleblowers and the media, using verifiable facts and evidence."

What is a real conspiracy?

Real conspiracies large and small DO exist. They are more often centred on single, self-contained events or an individual like an assassination or a coup d'état. They are unearthed by whistle-blowers and the media, using verifiable facts and evidence.

Looking for A REAL CONSPIRACY?

In 2006, the U.S. District Court in Washington DC (USA) ruled that major cigarette companies were guilty of conspiracy. For decades, they had hidden evidence of health risks attached to smoking to promote higher sales.

—LA Times, 2006

There is just one problem with the UN's definition of a "real" conspiracy theory. The media has been fully bought and paid for by the elite. And it's the elite who are conspiring against the masses.

Ever heard of Operation Mockingbird? In the 1960s you would get called a conspiracy theorist if you dared to suggest that the CIA was spying on journalists and controlling the mainstream media.

In reality, this is exactly what was happening. Operation Mockingbird was a CIA operation that spied on members of the Washington press corps in 1963, 1972 and 1973. They also paid journalists to publish CIA propaganda.

Wiretapping of US citizens is against CIA code, but this is what they did.

How do we know about this? Mockingbird was uncovered by the Church Committee after the Watergate scandal. John F. Kennedy secretly recorded Operation Mockingbird conversations in the Oval Office and they are now part of The Presidential Recordings.

So sure, we should be trusting everything the media and fact checkers say, right? It's not like they have a history of being manipulated by shadowy three-letter agencies and the global elite, right?

But that was the 60s and 70s and everything has gotten worse since then. In 2013, Obama signed legislation that repealed the U.S. Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, also known as the Smith-Mundt Act.

Why is this important?

The Smith-Mundt Act was a so-called anti-propaganda law that prevented the U.S. government's mammoth broadcasting arm from delivering programming to American audiences. But on July 2 2013, Obama quietly and deceitfully changed the law, meaning that the US government and the CIA could legally propagandize US citizens.

Strangely, the mainstream media don't like to acknowledge this fact. But it suits government agencies and the United Nations down to the ground. Of course they will tell you to place blind trust in the mainstream media and fact checkers. Regardless of how many times they get proved wrong, time and time again.

Hunter Biden's Latpop from Hell, anyone? It took the media more than a year to admit that it was a real thing. For a whole year the media was telling us that the laptop story was “Russian disinformation” and fact checkers were censoring social media, scrubbing it clean of any trace of the Laptop From Hell story, for fear that it would damage Biden Sr.’s presidential run.

In 1998 Noam Chomsky co-authored a book with Edward Herman called Manufacturing Consent. It blasted apart the notion that the mainstream media informs the public, serves the public, so that we can better engage in the political process.

In fact, the mainstream media manufactures our consent. It tells us what their paymasters, the three letter agencies and global elite, so that we can fall in line. Democracy is staged with the help of the mainstream media which works as a propaganda machine.

Mainstream media is not a check on power. The very system requires complicity. Governments, corporations, global institutions like the United Nations... they know how to play the media game. They know how to control the news narrative. They know how to manipulate and control the masses.

They feed official scoops, official accounts, interviews with so-called experts. They breed fear because fear breeds compliance.

If you want to challenge power, you will be pushed to the margins. The CIA invented the term “conspiracy theorist” in the 1950s in order to denigrate those who dared to ask questions outside of the box and challenge the corrupt system.

The United Nations’ war on conspiracy theorists is more of the same. They want to shame those among us who dare to ask questions and question the official narrative.

Ask yourself, when was the last time the media unearthed a conspiracy? (Tumbleweed blowing down a dusty street).
