During Monday morning's episode of 'The View', co-host Whoopi Goldberg reacted to the death of Tyre Nichols who was beaten to death by five black police officers. Despite the fact that Nichols was killed by black officers, the left is intent on blaming the death on white people as well as 'racism.'

On her show, Goldberg asked if white people need to start being killed by police officers for America to start taking police brutality seriously.

It is worth noting that more white people are killed by police officers each year than black people.

"Do we need to see white people also get beaten before anybody will do anything? I'm not suggesting that, so don't write us and tell me what a racist I am," she said as she tried to cover for herself.

Goldberg has a history of racist rhetoric.

About 10 months ago, Goldberg was suspended from "The View" after she claimed the Holocaust was not about race. She initially apologized about the comments however her apology appears to not be sincere considering just this week, she made another similar remark.

"Remember who they were killing first. They were not killing racial; they were killing physical. They were killing people they considered to be mentally defective. And then they made this decision," she said.

As noted by journalist Janice Turner, the Nazi's actually created race laws against the Jews.

"Nazis saw Jews as a race," Turner said.

"Yes, but that's the killer, isn't it? The oppressor is telling you what you are. Why are you believing them? They're Nazis. Why believe what they're saying?" she blasted.

"It doesn't change the fact that you could not tell a Jew on a street," Turner continued. "You could find me. You couldn't find them."

"But you would have thought that I'd taken a big old stinky dump on the table, but naked," she said while referring to comments made by Goldberg on "The View."

"Whoopi Goldberg – 1 million Jews were murdered in Auschwitz alone, so take a lesson from @AuschwitzMuseum. Hitler targeted Jews for annihilation arguing that we are a distinct and inferior race. Stop distorting history. It's offensive to every Jew murdered in the Holocaust," tweeted Boundless Israel co-founder Aviva Klompas.

"Whoopi is at it again, repeating the very same nonsense about the Holocaust she 'apologized' for months ago! Whoopi is so ignorant she claims Nazi genocide was 'not about race' even though Africans were also murdered as 'racial inferiors' just like Jews! @TheView is her enabler," said Democrat New York Assemblyman Dov Hikind with an attached video where he called her "ignorant," "stupid" and "uneducated."

"You're entitled to say whatever you want to say. This is America," Hikind added. "But ABC does not need to give you a platform."
