Just so you have more insight as to why I despise you so much.

I could have left the Marine Corps in November 1990.

My nation was heading toward a war I did not support.

But I volunteered to not only stay in, but to deploy.

Because that's what Marines do.

I had a cushy job in a bomb-proof underground bunker, doing BDA on Iraqi Scuds.

But we weren't killing them, and our failure to do so meant missiles were landing on Israel.

To try and improve our ability to detect and destroy Iraqi Scuds, I volunteered for two special reconnaissance missions deep into Iraq to collect intelligence.

Yes, I volunteered to leave a cushy job in a bomb-proof bunker to go behind enemy lines to gather intelligence that would be used to stop Iraqi missiles from hitting Israel.

And when the war ended, I spent seven years with the UN in Iraq, working with AMAN, Unit 8200, and other Israeli organizations to make sure Iraq never again threatened Israel with Scud missiles.

The Israel I helped defend—not as an IDF soldier, but a US Marine and UN inspector, no longer exists—it died the day a believer in Eretz Israel murdered Yitzhak Rabin.

You wrap yourself in the flag of Eretz Israel, and proclaim yourself as a proud "ex-IDF" armor repairman.

Your nation is at war—an existential struggle for the future of Eretz Israel.

Why aren't you serving?

I did more in the defense of Israel than you ever have, and ever will.

That Israel no longer exists.

And I know you as the coward you are.
